Congratulations to TRREB on your 100th anniversary

On behalf of the entire Coldwell Banker Canada network, I extend our congratulations to all our friends and colleagues at the Toronto Regional Real Estate Board on your 100th anniversary.

You've made tremendous strides in our industry since your organization first started out back in 1920. TRREB has been a leader in innovation and professionalism for the past century, to the benefit of the Canadian consumer and everyone in organized real estate. It's a tradition that I know will continue for the next hundred years.

When I started my own real estate career as a sales representative in Guelph over 35 years ago, I felt a great sense of pride that Canada had one of the largest real estate boards in the world and set the bar high for others to follow.

Thank you TRREB, and happy birthday from everyone at Coldwell Banker Canada!
